'FEDS FEED FAMILIES' ACCEPTING DONATIONS AT FORT MCCOY LOCATIONS

The annual "Feds Feed Families" food drive is underway at Fort McCoy and will continue through Aug. 31. The campaign is a voluntary effort by federal employees to donate nonperishable food items for distribution to local food banks.

On post, collection boxes are located at IHG Army Hotels, B51; Rumpel Fitness Center, B1122; the Fort McCoy Commissary, B1537; the Exchange, B1538; McCoy's Community Center, B1571; the Child Development Center, B1796; and the Religious Support Office, B2675.

Anyone can contribute items to the campaign. Food and household item donations can include canned fruits, proteins, vegetables, multigrain cereals, grains, soups, 100 percent juice, condiments, snacks, baking goods, hygiene items, paper products and household items.

In 2016, more than 3.28 million pounds were collected by all Department of Defense participating agencies.

For more information about the Feds Feed Families campaign, visit https://www.defense.gov/News/Special-Reports/0617_fff/
