ACS SPOTLIGHT ON AWARENESS TREE

When you pick up your Celebrations & Traditions Kit from under ACS's December tree, you will notice the tree decorated in multi-colored lights. The multi-colored lights represent the many celebrations around the world that occur in the month of December including Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Three Kings Day, Saint Nicholas Day, Boxing Day, Our Lady of Guadalupe Day, Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Las Posadas, Chinese New Year, and Bodhi Day just to name a few. In the kit, you will find materials to learn about some of these holidays and information and ideas to enhance your own celebrations and traditions! When you stop by, ask our ACS staff about the services available to you as a patron. ACS, located at 2111 South 8th Avenue is open Mon-Fri from 7:30 am - 4:00 pm, except Federal holidays or unless posted.

CARDS FOR VETERANS/MILITARY FAMILIES

Need a Christmas greeting card to send to a veteran or military Family? We have handmade Christmas cards, personalized for the military, available at ACS for you to select from. Let's spread some kindness by sending a cheerful note and a thank you to those that have served us all around the world. A shout out to our Volunteer Program called The Connection Club that graciously made these cards.
